

God's Prophetic Calendar

The Appointed Times and Feasts of the Lord

by
Jim Sayles

The vast majority of Christian believers think that the appointed times and feasts of the Lord, first given to Israel as shown in Leviticus 23, is not applicable to the New Testament church, because we are not required to celebrate these appointed times and feasts of the Lord.

We may choose to celebrate them, but we are not required to celebrate them. And we will celebrate them during the millennial kingdom, but we are not required to celebrate them now.

But the requirement to celebrate and memorialize the appointed times (for the redemption of the remnant of fallen mankind) in pre-Christ Israel should convey to us just how important the revelatory understanding of the appointed times and feasts is for those upon whom the fulfillment of the ages has come, because this calendar demonstrating God's plan of redemption for the remnant of fallen mankind in Jesus Christ has been, and will be, fulfilled exclusively in the NEW TESTAMENT.

This IS the prophetic calendar of God's plan of redemption for a remnant of fallen mankind in Christ, beginning with the crucifixion of Jesus Christ on PASSOVER and ending with our eternal home in the New Jerusalem on the earth after it has been renovated by spiritual fire.

For this reason any examination of the numerous prophecies related to the redemption of the elect remnant of fallen mankind must be viewed in the light of God's calendar of redemption presented metaphorically, but precisely, in the appointed times and feasts of the Lord.

Yet, the most popular schools of end times prophetic eschatology do not comply with this partially fulfilled calendar given to us for our revelatory understanding concerning things to come for the church.

This has resulted in errors of interpretation and deceptions that have become strongholds of TRADITION assaulted against the absolute, immutable, revelatory truth of God.

For the weapons of our warfare are not physical [weapons of flesh and blood], but they are mighty before God for the overthrow and destruction of strongholds, ... (described as) ... [Inasmuch as we] refute arguments and theories and reasonings and every proud and lofty thing that sets itself up against the [true] ... (rhema) ... knowledge of God. 2 Corinthians 10:4,5 Amplified (inserts and emphasis are the author's)

Therefore, regardless of the authority of the one expounding on his/her theories about biblical prophecy, or any long-standing and popular TRADITION of interpretation, if it does not and cannot conform with the truth about God's only redemptive covenant in Jesus Christ or with the detailed prophetic calendar the Father has provided in the appointed times and feasts of the Lord, those theories are in heretical error.

If it was NOT important for the elect remnant of mankind, which He has called "the Israel of God," to have revelatory insight into "things to come," He would not have given us the prophecies to begin with. Nor would Satan have set up so many elaborate deceptions concerning them.

That Satan was successful in blinding the spiritual eyes of the Pharisees, the intellectual giants of Israel who were intimately acquainted with every written word concerning the Messiah, and with the intricate details of God's prophetic calendar for the redemption of fallen mankind in Christ, is historic fact. That he has been successful in blinding the spiritual eyes of many of the intellectual giants of spiritual Israel, the church, is also self-evident.

Yet, God took great care in providing us, upon whom the fulfillment of the ages has come, with a specific, detailed calendar for His plan of redemption in Jesus Christ.

But the interpretation of this calendar, like all biblical scripture, must be done with the revelatory guidance of the Spirit of truth who wrote it.

When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth, for he will not speak on his own authority, but whatever he hears he will speak, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. John 16:13 ESV
(emphasis is the author's)

From the Exodus story, we can see that the Pesach lambs were slain on 14 Nisan, the day of Passover. On 15 Nisan, the first day of Unleavened Bread (Hag HaMatzah), the people left Egypt; on 16 Nisan, Firstfruits, the children of Israel crossed the Red Sea; and 50 days after Passover, on the Feast of Weeks (Shavuot), or Pentecost, God gave the Torah (instruction or "Law") on Mount Sinai.

This is the historic prototype of the spring and summer feasts and appointed times, of which Jesus Christ, the Messiah, is now, and will be, the complete spiritual fulfillment.

In Leviticus 23 and Deuteronomy 15 and 16 the Israelites were given the specific instructions for the appointed times and feasts, the annual Sabbaths, or high holy days, in which they memorialized what was the historic natural fulfillment of the first three feasts (national Israel's deliverance from Egypt) with a forward view to the ultimate Messianic fulfillment of all seven feasts.

The calendar of appointed times given to the Israelites after the historic events of the exodus perfectly matched the dates of their historic fulfillment, and, as we note, perfectly match the dates of their spiritual fulfillment.

For this reason the appointed times and feasts of the Lord are seen as God's calendar for the fulfillment of His entire plan of redemption for fallen mankind in Christ.

I write this with the understanding that there are numerous intellectual interpretations of the details of this calendar without revelatory insight that are in disagreement with the revelatory truth contained in the same calendar. But for those who have ears to hear and eyes to see, God's calendar of appointed times and feasts is an amazing confirmation of past, present, and future truth.

Unleavened Bread (spring) – barley harvest

Passover (Pesach) – 14 Nisan

Unleavened Bread (Chag Hamotzi) – 15-22 Nisan

Firstfruits (Yom habikkurim) – 16 Nisan

Pentecost (summer) – wheat harvest

Pentecost (Shavu'ot) – 6 Sivan

Tabernacles (fall)

Trumpets (Yom Teru'ah) – 1 Tishri

Atonement (Yom Kippur) – 10 Tishri

Tabernacles (Sukkot) – 15-22 Tishri

What we notice is that this calendar of the appointed times and feasts of the Lord is very specific. And it is seen throughout both the OT and the NT with numerous details by which the Spirit of truth can both reveal and confirm the intent of the Father through the Son.

With a revelatory understanding of this calendar, all arguments negating God's intent to warn and prepare each generation for the time in which they are living, is demonstrated to be a lie.

What we see here is that the miraculous events through which God delivered natural Israel from their bondage in Egypt were a foreshadowing of the spiritual fulfillment of those events to spiritual Israel, the church, with natural deliverance from bondage becoming spiritual deliverance from sin, and with the external Law becoming the internal Law, the perfect will of God, written on our hearts through the indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit.

That part of the “appointed times” calendar that has been completed:

| | 14 Nisan “Passover” | 15 Nisan “Unleavened Bread” | 16 Nisan “Firstfruits” | 6 Sivan “Pentecost” |
|----------------------------------|-----------------------------|-----------------------------------|---|---|
| Natural Fulfillment | Pesach lamb slain | left Egypt | crossed Red Sea | Law given on Mt. Sinai |
| Spiritual Fulfillment | Jesus crucified | Jesus buried | Jesus resurrected (3 rd day) | Law written on our hearts (partial fulfillment) |

The spiritual fulfillment of Passover, Unleavened Bread, and Firstfruits are also the fulfillment of God’s covenant promise to the “seed” of Abraham, Jesus of Nazareth, and to all those who are included in this covenant, both Jew and Gentile, by grace through faith, from Adam forward.

Thus the old covenant, that could not redeem mankind, was fulfilled unto regeneration (salvation), and a New Covenant in Jesus Christ, the Son of Man and the last Adam, was established which will redeem the entire elect remnant of fallen mankind from Adam forward just as it was planned by God from before the foundations of the world (i.e. before the creation).

(A complete exegete regarding the inclusion of OT saints from Adam forward, as well as those who are unable to respond to the revelation of God, is found in The Blood Covenant)

A quote from “Jesus Christ Immutable” by Charles Spurgeon puts this succinctly:

“These who saw Christ’s day before it came, had a great difference as to what they knew, and perhaps in the same measure a difference as to what they enjoyed while on earth meditating upon Christ; but they were all washed in the same blood, all redeemed with the same ransom price, and made members of the same body. Israel in the covenant of grace is not natural Israel, but all Believers in all ages.”

A clear understanding of God’s covenant relationship with an elect remnant of mankind (“the Israel of God”) in Christ, which includes the entire remnant of redeemed mankind from Adam forward, therefore, goes hand in hand with this calendar.

And, as it relates to the covenant, the most important event for us to consider concerning national, ethnic Israel is the ratification of the written Law (the old covenant) by all Israel, saying, “All the words which the LORD has spoken we will do.” (Exodus 24)

This covenant ratification spoken by all national, ethnic Israel committed the entire seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob to perfect compliance with the Law, and, at that exact point in time the title-deed to, and final fulfillment of the promise, could only be received through perfect compliance with the Law by an Israelite.

After this ratification, which was fulfilled by the only “seed” of Abraham who was able to comply with all the covenant requirements, and for whom the promises of God were always intended, every national, ethnic Jew who has been or will be included in this one and only redemptive covenant, has, and will, only be included on the basis of their inclusion in the spiritual body of Christ, which includes both Jews and Gentiles as “one new man” in Christ, also identified as the “Israel of God.” (Gal. 6:16)

From the resurrection of Jesus Christ forward, then, national, ethnic Israel plays no part in the fulfillment of God’s redemptive plan apart from individual Jews being included in Christ by grace through faith, and the future of national, ethnic Israel is totally unrelated to God’s calendar of appointed times and feasts, though biblical prophecy does reveal future events that relate to unfulfilled promises and unfulfilled judgments from that time in which national, ethnic Israel still held the title-deed to the promises of God. (See Understanding Biblical Prophecy in Terms of Covenant)

It is interesting to note that the Lord was crucified on 14 Nisan (Passover) at the same time that the Pesach lambs were being slaughtered all over Jerusalem, and on 16 Nisan (Firstfruits) the Lord was resurrected at the same time that the high priest, Caiphas, was waving the barley sheaf (without leaven) at the altar in in spite of the curtain between the Holy Place and the Holy of Holies being torn from top to bottom as if by a giant sword.

This “firstfruits” offering of the entire harvest, then, symbolized the “firstborn from among the dead” (Col. 1:18) harvest of Jesus Christ as the firstfruits of all mankind to be raised from the dead.

Thus “Firstfruits” is the appointed time that the covenant first given to Abraham and his “seed” (not “seeds”) was fulfilled to Jesus of Nazareth, Son of God, Son of Man, the last Adam, who fulfilled all the Law and the prophets, making it possible for an elect remnant of mankind, identified as spiritual Israel, the “Israel of God,” to be included as joint heirs in the eternal covenant of God through their faith and spiritual incorporation in Him.

It is IMPORTANT that we confirm and acknowledge that there is no other redemptive covenant demonstrated anywhere in God's calendar of appointed times.

Pentecost, the Feast of Weeks, is directly connected to Passover and Firstfruits in that this is the date upon which spiritual Israel, including both Jews and Gentiles as "one new man" in Christ, received the promised sealing of the Holy Spirit as a pledge of their complete redemption in Christ (inclusion as joint heirs in the covenant).

Most view the coming of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost as the complete and total fulfillment of this particular appointed time, but the coming of the Holy Spirit was only the initiatory event, just as our sealing unto regeneration by the Holy Spirit at the moment of saving faith was the initiation of our redemption, but not the completion of it.

The coming of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost was the fulfillment of the Law being given on Sinai as the perfect Law was written on our hearts by the presence of the Holy Spirit, our Counselor and our spiritual conscience as promised in Ezekiel 36:26,27:

A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh. And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them.

Pentecost is the middle event between the first three events and the last three events, yet to be fulfilled. Pentecost is, in reality, a feast to celebrate the redemptive plan of God in Christ as that plan is manifested in and through spiritual Israel, the "Israel of God" in Christ, which from the resurrection of Jesus Christ until the last day resurrection, IS the church.

And, although our redemption was initiated on that first Pentecost, it will not be completed for the majority of the elect until the resurrection of living and dead saints on some future Feast of Trumpets, 1 Tishri.

But there is another event that will take place on some future Pentecost prior to the last day resurrection fulfillment of the Feast of Trumpets.

The wave offering of two wheat loaves containing leaven, representing both Jews and Gentiles as a firstfruits offering of the wheat harvest has NOT been fulfilled, because to date, none from Adam forward have been fully redeemed (harvested), even though the dead in Christ are now in the heavenly presence and cannot, therefore, reject their faith in Christ.

Even these, though, will not receive their full redemption until the 7th trumpet of the 7th seal on “the last day” resurrection. Yet, there will be a glorious firstfruits of the wheat harvest unto God and the Lamb.

Some who are aware of this believe it to be the pre-tribulation or mid-tribulation “rapture” so many western protestant believers are falsely expecting. Even that bastion of dispensational, pre-tribulation “rapture” theorists, Chuck Missler, the “Bible Answer Man,” has speculated that the “rapture” will take place on some future “Pentecost” as opposed to the “Feast of Trumpets” as others have speculated.

But dispensationalism, espoused by Missler, who loves to smugly say, “We’ll explain it on the way up,” is in denial of the fact that there is one, and only one, redemptive covenant, the covenant that scripture reveals, and God’s calendar of redemption confirms, was fulfilled by THE “seed” of Abraham, Jesus Christ, on 16 Nisan, the feast of “firstfruits,” two millennia ago.

The false prophets of spiritual Israel have attempted to claim that the feast of atonement on 10 Tisri will be a fulfillment of God’s original promise to Abraham and his “seeds,” national, ethnic Israel, even claiming that the church will then be grafted into that covenant.

But the day of atonement that will follow ten days after the last day resurrection of the living and dead saints of all time will be the glorious return of the Lord of Lords and King of Kings to destroy His enemies at Har-Mageddon, and the only men and women left alive at the end of that day of the Lord will be those Jews and Gentiles who have not taken the covenant mark of the beast and have not persecuted spiritual Israel.

These will then be judged as “sheep,” and allowed to enter the millennial kingdom as natural, but regenerated men and women. And it will be these who populate the kingdom during the millennial reign of Jesus Christ.

Barley is the first crop to be harvested in Israel, and the wheat harvest begins approximately fifty days later.

Jesus Christ was the Firstfruits of the entire harvest of mankind, represented by the wave offering of the barley sheaf (without leaven). But according to the revelation of the Lord, (Revelation 7 and 14:1-5), the metaphorical 144,000 “virgins” from the twelve tribes of Israel (spiritual Israel, the “Israel of God” in Christ) are sealed for protection immediately before the opening of the 7th seal, which is the beginning of “great tribulation.” And they are fully redeemed or “harvested” at that time.

These...(the metaphorical 144,000) ...have been redeemed from mankind as firstfruits ... (of the wheat harvest)...for God and the Lamb. Revelation 14:4b ESV (inserts and emphasis is the author's)

Jesus was resurrected as the “firstfruits” of the entire harvest, represented by a barley sheaf without leaven (sin), and scripture reveals that there will be a “firstfruits” of the wheat harvest, represented by two wheat loaves (i.e. Jew and Gentile) with leaven (sin), followed by the complete wheat harvest at the resurrection.

The scene of this “firstfruits” harvest is seen in Revelation 14 on spiritual Mount Zion before the last day resurrection, but these have not been removed from the earth. In Revelation 7 we see that the metaphorical 144,000 have been sealed for protection during the 7th seal events, the final 3.5 years of “great tribulation,” rather than being removed from the earth.

This sealing is on the foreheads (Rev. 7:3), and it is with the name of the Lord and the name of the Father (Rev. 14:1), which is the sealing of the completion of redemption, the sealing that the rest of the saints (the complete wheat harvest) of all time will receive at the last day resurrection.

Thus the sealing of the 144,000 does not, in any way, represent a resurrection of the living and dead who meet the Lord in the air. These are all living saints who are sealed for protection and for the completion of their redemption IN the world. (For a complete exegete of this amazing prophecy see “The 144,000.”)

This is also the fulfillment of the Lord's promise to the Philadelphian type of church, (Revelation 3:10), and it is metaphorically illustrated by the woman clothed with the sun (initially national, ethnic Israel; now spiritual Israel, the “Israel of God” in Christ) who is carried by the “great eagle” (the Holy Spirit) to a place of protection in the “wilderness.”

“Wilderness” in this instance is not a physical place, but a place of spiritual protection in the world. The event of Nebuchadnezzar (as a type of the Antichrist) throwing the three Hebrew children, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego into the fiery furnace for refusing to worship him as “god” is a foreshadowing of the greater event of the 144,000 being protected in the wilderness during the fiery trials of “great tribulation.”

In the former event the Lord was present with the Hebrew children in the fire. In the latter event the Lord will be present in complete fellowship with the 144,000 in the fires of “great tribulation,” and this fully redeemed remnant of spiritual Israel at that time will be juxtaposed against the presence of the fullness of Satan in fulfillment of Ephesians 4:13 and Isaiah 59:19.

...until we all attain oneness in the faith and in the comprehension of the [full and accurate] ... (personal relationship)... knowledge of the Son of God, that [we might arrive] at really mature manhood (the completeness of personality which is nothing less than the standard height of Christ's own perfection), the measure of the stature of the fullness of the Christ and the completeness found in Him. Ephesians 4:13 Amplified (emphasis is the author's)

So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy...(Satan through the Antichrist)... shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard ...(the 144,000)...against him. Isaiah 59:19 KJV (inserts are the author's)

The key to understanding this event requires the understanding that we are initiated into the redemptive process by the internal sealing of the Holy Spirit as a "deposit" or "guarantee" of our complete redemption, but any who reject their faith in Christ, for whatever reason, will lose this internal sealing of the Holy Spirit. And they cannot gain it back.

That [Spirit] is the guarantee of our inheritance [the firstfruits, the pledge and foretaste, the down payment on our heritage], in anticipation of its full redemption and our acquiring [complete] possession of it--to the praise of His glory. Ephesians 1:14 Amplified (emphasis is the author's)

But the Spirit explicitly says that in later times...(when?)... some...(individuals)... will fall away from the faith...(revolt and leave their initial standing)..., paying attention to deceitful spirits and doctrines of demons, by means of the hypocrisy of liars seared in their own conscience as with a branding iron... 1 Timothy 4:1 NASB (inserts and emphasis are the author's)

Thus regeneration must be clearly understood as the initial start of a journey of faith, during which we are tested and tried, resulting in the completion of our ultimate redemption, which for all but the metaphorical 144,000 will take place on the last day resurrection, which is the 7th trumpet of the 7th seal on 1 Tishri. (See "Once Saved, Always Saved?")

The fact that we have missed this future fulfillment of Pentecost in the past is consistent with Daniel 12:4 in which we are told that some parts of biblical prophecy and doctrine related to the end times have been "sealed," meaning that the Holy Spirit who was sent to guide us into all truth will not guide us into this truth until the time of God's choosing.

Therefore, because the seals are beginning to be progressively removed at this present time, I can only conclude that many who are alive today will witness and/or be a part of this astonishing event, hidden in part because we have believed the Pharisees of our faith whose theories about eschatological truth are incompatible with God's own prophetic calendar and with the truth of our covenant relationship with the Father through His Son, Jesus Christ.

The sealing and complete redemption of the metaphorical 144,000 on some future Pentecost as "firstfruits unto God and the Lamb" will completely fulfill that part of this appointed time, and it will take place immediately before the opening of the 7th seal and 3.5 years of "great tribulation" during which the metaphorical 144,000 will bring in the final harvest of an uncountable number of tribulation saints from every nation, tribe, and tongue.

This will infuriate Satan, who cannot harm the 144,000, also represented metaphorically as the "woman clothed with the sun," and he will martyr the vast majority of the tribulation saints being brought to faith by the 144,000. Thus the 144,000 are a redemptive witness to the world of the fullness of Christ in the church, while the witness of the two prophets in Jerusalem is unrelated to redemption. Their witness is, instead, a witness in sackcloth and ashes of prophetic judgment upon the Antichrist and company during the second woe of the final 3.5 years of "great tribulation" during which Jerusalem will be the seat of the end time Babylonian world system, also known as "Babylon, the great."

"...and their ... (the two witnesses)... bodies will lie in the street of the great city that symbolically is called Sodom and Egypt, where their Lord was crucified." Revelation 11:8 ESV (insert and emphasis is the author's)

(*Because this truth concerning the 144,000 has been fully confirmed to me I can barely restrain myself from gushing it out at every opportunity, but the reality is that most will not accept this truth without having a firm revelatory confirmation concerning our redemptive covenant in Christ and the appointed times and feasts of the Lord.)

The one and only resurrection of living and dead saints from Adam forward on some future 1 Tishri, exactly 3.5 years after the sealing and redemption of the metaphorical 144,000 on Passover (6 Sivan) at the sounding of the 7th trumpet of the 7th seal, will be the fulfillment of the Feast of Trumpets.

On 10 Tishri (Yom Kippur), after the ten days of awe, during which "those who have pierced Him" will grieve and mourn, is the Day of Atonement when the Lord physically returns to the earth at the Mount of Olives to destroy His enemies at Har-Mageddon, followed by the initial fulfillment of the Feast of Tabernacles on 15 Tishri through 22 Tishri, during which the temple is cleansed and the Holy of Holies is anointed as “King of Kings” and “Lord of Lords,” beginning the millennial kingdom reign of Jesus Christ.

This Feast of Tabernacles, like Pentecost, though, is also fulfilled in two parts. The first part is fulfilled by the cleansing of the temple and the initiation of the millennial reign of Jesus Christ in the earth. The ultimate fulfillment will take place when we are eternally tabernacled with Him in the New Jerusalem.

All who have taken the mark of the beast, whether Jew or Gentile, will perish on the Day of Atonement, and all who have persecuted the church, whether Jew or Gentile, will be judged as “goats.” But there will be a remnant of both Jews and Gentiles who have not taken the mark of the beast and have not persecuted spiritual Israel who will enter the millennial kingdom as natural men and women.

We are not given a specific understanding (for reasons only the Holy Spirit knows) of how these natural men and women who repopulate the earth during the Kingdom age come to faith and are redeemed.

Yet, we do know that some, toward the end of the millennial kingdom, will ultimately not come to faith, or will reject their faith, and these will rebel against the iron rod rule of the Lord of Lords and King of Kings, even though Satan is not initially present to deceive them.

During this millennial kingdom age the appointed times and feasts of the Lord will be celebrated as a memorial of His completion of the seven appointed times and the fulfillment of God’s plan of redemption for an elect remnant of mankind, the “Israel of God,” by grace through faith.

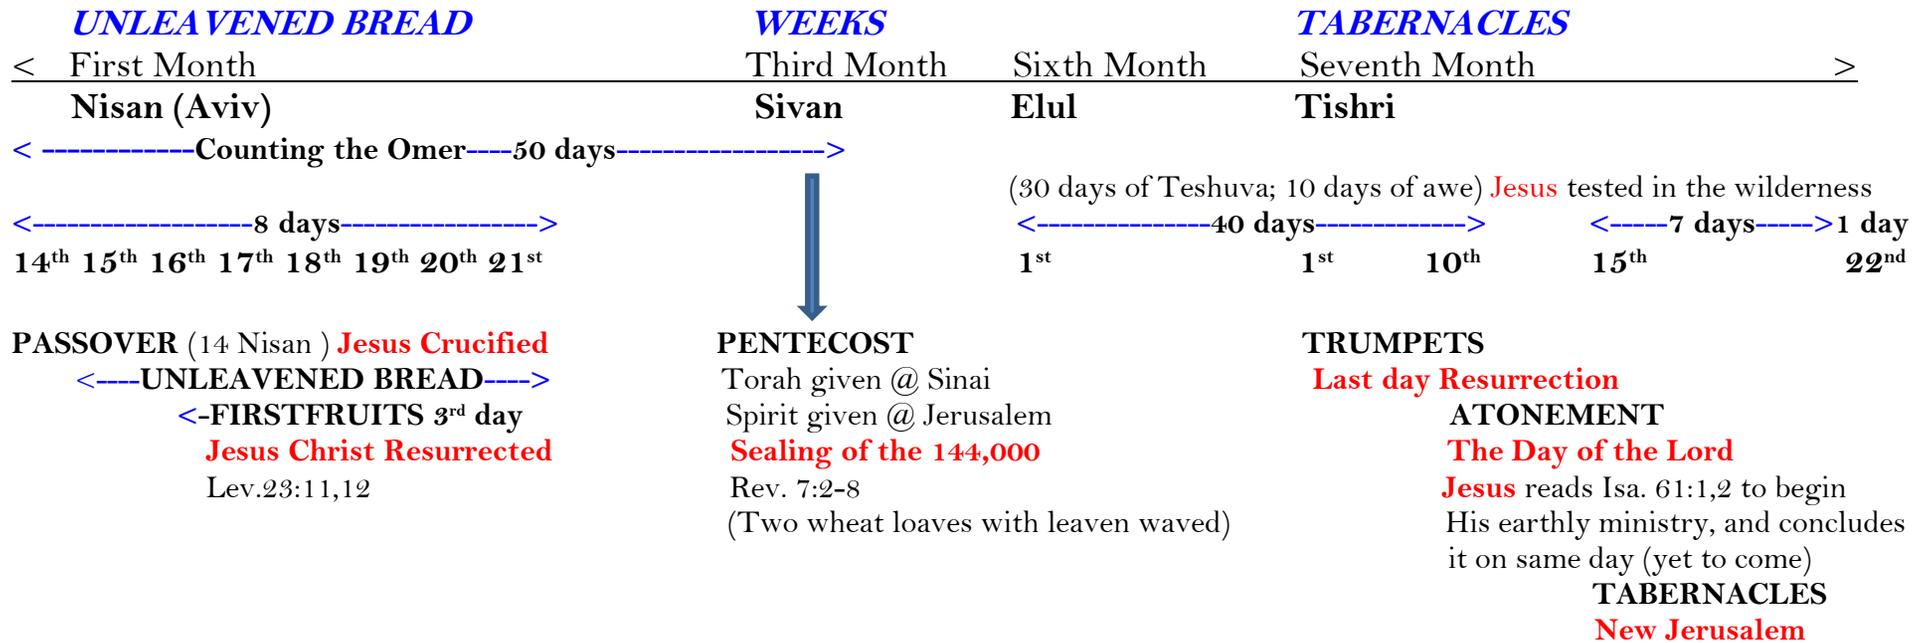

And it will not be until this time that the covenant promises to Abraham and his “seed” (Jesus of Nazareth) will be totally fulfilled, not to natural Israel but to spiritual Israel, the Israel of God in Christ.

Then, at the end of this time, the Feast of Tabernacles will be ultimately fulfilled by a time known by the Jews as “rejoicing in the Torah” as the earth is renovated by fire, and we inhabit the New Jerusalem for all eternity.

For us, upon whom the fulfillment of the ages has come, the revelatory understanding of the prophetic calendar of appointed times and feasts of the Lord and of the eternal covenant written in His blood, which is the only redemptive covenant, planned by God before the foundations of the world, are meant by God to be our primary sources of truth by which we can test biblical prophecy and true doctrine.

Therefore, those who are “wise” will examine these doctrines thoroughly with a Berean attitude in order to reject error and deception and receive revelatory truth from the Spirit of truth just as the Father has intended.

APPOINTED TIMES and FEASTS of the LORD God's Calendar of Redemption

The Father's calendar for the redemption of fallen mankind from Adam forward is demonstrated in the Appointed Times and Feasts of the Lord given to Israel. Passover was first celebrated by the Jews in Egypt as they anointed their door frames with the blood of innocent lambs, with the ultimate intent of Passover being the crucifixion of Jesus Christ. Likewise, Unleavened Bread was fulfilled by Jesus Christ as the sinless Lamb of God at His burial, and Firstfruits was fulfilled as Jesus Christ was resurrected ("the firstborn from among the dead") to become the High Priest and Mediator of the covenant promised to THE "seed" of Abraham, Jesus of Nazareth, through which we have become "joint heirs." Pentecost was first celebrated in memory of the giving of the Law on Mt. Sinai, then partially fulfilled when the promised Holy Spirit was given to the body of Christ. But the ultimate fulfillment is yet to come when the metaphorical 144,000 will be sealed in their foreheads as "firstfruits unto God and the Lamb" (Rev. 14:4) immediately before the 7th seal is opened ("great tribulation"). These, then, are those who will bring in the harvest of an uncountable number from every nation, tribe, and tongue at the same time that Satan's beast kingdom is manifested in fullness. Trumpets will be fulfilled at the resurrection of the saints on the last day. And Atonement will be fulfilled ten days later on the "great and terrible day of the Lord," as Jesus Christ returns to earth to destroy His enemies and establish His millennial throne in Jerusalem. The first part of Tabernacles is fulfilled beginning five days after Atonement with the cleansing of the temple, and ultimately fulfilled when we have our eternal Tabernacle with the Lord of Lords and King of Kings in the New Jerusalem.
