A clear, unsealed, revelatory understanding of the past, present, and future events and entities engaged in end time warfare against the kingdom of God

Part 4: Defeat of the Third Jihad - The defeat of the Third Jihad and the massive conversion of Muslims to faith in Christ followed by the emergence of the “little horn” and a one world government

There are no “moderate” Muslims, as they are constantly referred to in the media, only disobedient ones who refuse to do the will of Allah as well as cultural Muslims associated with the Muslim religious tradition who have no real passion for Allah or the Qur’an.

The following passages are only a few of the hundreds of scriptures found in the Qur’an promoting violence against infidel unbelievers. We are not doing ourselves or the “cultural” Muslims who do not align themselves with the teachings of Islam, any favors by not acknowledging the truth that will dominate our lives until either Israel and America (and all their allies, including Saudi Arabia) are brought to their knees or the Islamic forces waging a “holy” war against us are brought to their knees.

The historic and spiritual origin of this “holy” war goes all the way back to Abraham. The sons of Abraham, Ishmael, the first-born illegitimate son of unbelief, who would become the father of the Islamic nations, and Isaac, the son of faith and inheritor of God’s covenant blessings, have been at war from the beginning. America, (currently the primary form of the White Horseman) as a friend of Israel is seen, second only to Israel, as the hated enemy of Islam (i.e. America is the manifestation of “Satan”) and a nation of infidels. And we are thus caught up in the end time conclusion of a great biblical conflict.

Qur'an (9:123) - "O you who believe! fight those of the unbelievers who are near to you and let them find in you hardness."

Qur'an (9:30) - "And the Jews say: Ezra is the son of Allah; and the Christians say: The Messiah is the son of Allah; these are the words of their mouths; they imitate the saying of those who disbelieved before; may Allah destroy them;"

Qur'an (8:57) - "If thou comest on them in the war, deal with them so as to strike fear in those who are behind them, that haply they may remember."

Qur'an (8:12) - "I will cast terror into the hearts of those who disbelieve. Therefore strike off their heads and strike off every fingertip of them"

Qur'an (2:191-193) - "And slay them wherever ye find them, and drive them out of the places whence they drove you out, for persecution [of Muslims] is worse than slaughter [of non-believers]...and fight them until persecution is no more, and religion is for Allah."

I will not presume to make this a study of the variants of current Muslim belief and practice, but history makes the intent of the Muslim prophet, Mohammed, and the Qur'an clear. Jihad means "struggle," but a particular kind of struggle. Jihad means to struggle to make Islam dominant over all other religions and governments. This is one of the religious duties of all devout Muslims, and according to Mohammad, it is the most important obligation a Muslim must fulfill.

The First Jihad started with Mohammad himself. His armies conquered all of Arabia, and in the hundred years after his death, the Islamic armies conquered most of the Middle East, North Africa and Spain. The First Jihad lasted from 622 AD until 750 AD.

The Second Jihad started in 1071 AD. Islamic armies toppled Constantinople and spread into Europe, India, and further into Africa. It was against this jihad that the crusaders from Great Britain and France fought. The Second Jihad began to decline when the Muslim army was stopped on September 11th, 1683 at the gates of Vienna, Austria.

However, the Islamic push to dominate all other cultures, all other religions, and all other governments has never stopped.

We are now in the third, and according to the prophecy revealed in Ezekiel 38 and 39, final great wave of Islamic jihad, which we have demonstrated to be the primary impetus of the black horseman.

In this regard, the death of UBL seemed like a huge victory for America, but Islam is a many-headed Hydra. The one head has become many, and the worst of the worst is yet to come.

In Ezekiel 38, after Israel has become a nation again (occupying Jerusalem) and living in “peace” (not under subjugation to any other nation or empire) a group of nations specifically identified as Turkey, Persia (Iran, Iraq, Syria), Ethiopia, Libya, Egypt, and possibly including Georgia and some of the Muslim dominated Russian country-states, will begin to stage up troops and equipment along the northern borders of Israel.

The CODE RED signal for us will be when Turkey orders NATO and United States to close the Air Force Bases there, and I believe that event will take place soon. Also important, but not essential, would be the removal of American military influence in Iraq.

But the immediate question that comes to mind is, “where is America when this happens?”

Another group of nations are shown in scripture to protest this obvious buildup of military forces intent on invading Israel. Among these are “Sheba” and “Dedan,” which most identify as Saudi Arabia. Also included in the list of protesting nations are the “merchants of Tarshish and the young lions thereof” (Ezekiel 38:13 KJV). The merchants of Tarshish are the nations that trade by sea through the Strait of Gibraltar. Gibraltar is a British protectorate, and the “young lions thereof” are, more than likely, the British colonies of Canada, Australia, and New Zealand, as well as the former colonies, America and India.

(This corresponds with the white horse and its rider in Revelation 6, and in that prophecy America is the dominant form of the white horse and its rider).

For reasons I have not been able to discern in scripture, but presume to be related to the corruption of the white horseman, the invading, Muslim dominated nations believe that they can overcome Israel without reprisals from either Israel or the protesting nations.

The battle, known in biblical scripture as the Gog-Magog war, ends badly for the Islamic troops and the nations involved in the attack.

This event, like all the worldly manifestations of the warfare between the kingdom of God and the beast kingdom, takes place not only in the earth, but in the heavenly realms as Satan's "princes" battle the warring angels of God. And God miraculously intercedes in the worldly manifestation with an earthquake off the Richter scale that confuses the enemy so much that they use their weapons on one another (like similar events in the Old Testament).

Specifically, God knocks the bows (long range weapon) out of their hands, causes their arrows (missiles) to fall short (on themselves) and ultimately "sends" fire on the homelands of the attacking nations. The phrase "sends fire" in context is not likely to mean heavenly fire but some form of earthly fire, like nuclear warheads, that He causes to fall on the homelands.

Eighty-five percent of the attacking force is destroyed, and Damascus is utterly destroyed, a veritable ash heap, fulfilling the prophecy of Isaiah 17:1-3.

This is how the Third Jihad will end.

The burden of Damascus. Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it shall be a ruinous heap. The cities of Aroer...(Jordan)... are forsaken: they shall be for flocks, which shall lie down, and none shall make them afraid.

The fortress also shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria: they shall be as the glory of the children of Israel,...(i.e. glory departed)... saith the Lord of hosts.

(inserts and emphasis are the author's)

But what prevents America, England, and other western nations from being a deterrent in this event?

My speculation is that a HUGE diversion is planned for the nations who might actually come to Israel's aid, and that diversion will incapacitate America and the west to the extent that they cannot prevent the attack.

However, it is likely that they will be the source of the "fire" that falls on the homelands of the attacking nations.

The black horseman carrying a pair of scales as a voice among the four living creatures who are responsible for releasing the horsemen says, "A quart of wheat for a denarius, and three quarts of barley for a denarius, and do not harm the oil and wine!"

The obvious suggestion here is one of both inflation and famine (a day's wages just to eat), meaning that there has been a world-wide economic collapse accompanied by famine, pandemic disease, and civil violence to the degree that the western nations that might ordinarily be allies of Israel will not be inclined to help because of the extent of chaos in their own countries.

Yet, the command not to harm the oil and the wine is intriguing, and as I meditated about this the suggestion came to me that this is God's command not to interfere with the anointing oil and new wine of the Holy Spirit during this time of trial so that believers walking by faith (the awakened "wise virgins") will experience supernatural provision in the midst of chaos and lack.

It has even been prophesied to me by a close friend that during this time those believers who are walking by faith in obedience to the revelatory truth, promises and commands of the Lord in spite of the chaotic circumstances will sit down at their tables, and food will appear as they pray.

It is of great interest to me that Muslims are being converted to Christianity in extraordinary ways and extraordinary numbers today, almost as if God is harvesting that field in preparation for the Gog-Magog war.

Dan Marshall, former pastor of Emirates Baptist Church International in Dubai, and Matt Burns, Managing Director of the Perspectives Global Service Office, a ministry of the U.S. Center for World Missions, were both frequent visitors in my home while they were attending Angelo State University in San Angelo, Texas. These two outstanding men have been deeply involved in reaching and teaching Muslims who have converted to Christianity.

The United Arab Emirates does not persecute Christians, and Muslims and Muslim converts to Christianity from many nations, including those who do persecute Christians, come to Dubai for business purposes.

What Matt reported to me was that they have met and heard about numerous Muslims who were introduced to Jesus Christ through dreams and visions, and, like Paul on the road to Damascus, they were told whom they were to contact to receive the gospel and be discipled in the faith.

Phil Christensen, pastor of Hill Country Bible Church Southwest, on a trip overseas to provide pastoral training for former Muslims converted to Christianity in Kazakhstan, also reported meeting two former Muslims who were introduced to Jesus Christ through dreams and visions.

Joel Rosenberg has also produced several YouTube videos of Muslims coming to faith in Jesus Christ through dreams and visions.

Since then I have heard from numerous other ministries that this is an increasingly common experience, almost as if the Lord is calling His sheep out from among the Muslim nations prior to the devastating Gog-Magog war that will set the Middle East on fire, with consequences for the entire world.

The one day defeat of the Third Jihad by God's supernatural intervention will elevate Israel to "Superpower" status among the nations, but the shocking destruction, including nuclear and, potentially, biological warfare, will affect the entire world.

It is then, after this astonishing one day nuclear war accompanied by the largest earthquake in recorded history that that the world will begin to clamor for a one world government, and the United Nations will become the political body to carry that out.

This will likely be accomplished when the Security Council of the United Nations is reorganized to include ten permanent member nations, not with a veto, but with a consensus vote and authority to enforce world law on both member and non-member nations.

Israel, even as a new "Superpower," will not likely be included in the original ten nation governing council, but it will be the re-organized United Nations who grant Israel the right to occupy the defeated nations all the way to the Euphrates River, and Israel's celebration of victory and the reclamation of lands promised to Abraham (but ultimately intended by God for the Israel of God in Christ) will be HUGE.

At the same time a new "prophet" will appear in Israel for the first time in more than 2000 years, and he will stun both the Israelis and the entire world, including the vast majority of institutional Christianity, with miraculous signs and wonders, as he professes that God has restored His covenant promises to national, ethnic Israel.

Jews from all over the world will begin to pour into the now, much LARGER oil rich nation of Israel with sea ports on the Mediterranean, the Red Sea, and the Persian Gulf, in what will be claimed as a fulfillment of the "dry bones" and "two sticks" prophecy of Ezekiel 37, though that prophecy, shown to take place prior to the Gog-Magog war, was literally fulfilled on the Pentecost when the promised Holy Spirit fell on spiritual Israel, uniting Jews and Gentiles as "one new man" in Christ. (See The Two House Mythology Exposed)

Then the prophet of Israel (THE "false prophet") will direct the rebuilding of the Third Temple, reinstatement of the Levitical priesthood, and the reinstatement of temple worship and sacrifices, in anticipation of Israel's coming "mashiac, Messiah Ben David, which is seen from God's perspective as an antichrist "abomination."

The stage is now set, and a hero of the Gog-Magog war whose lineage can be traced to the tribe of Judah and to the lineage of King David will be anointed as "king" by the false prophet of Israel as the event is televised worldwide in the Third Temple rebuilt by the Land of Israel Faithful and Temple Mount Movement or some amalgamation of fundamentalist Jews on some future feast of atonement.

Then the new king of Israel will call down fire from heaven and declare himself to be “Messiah Ben David” returned to rule the world with an iron rod from Jerusalem.
